THREATENED SCHOOLGIRLS, Jaknown Young Man Pointed Revolver at Hattie and Ruby Williams of

Misses Mattie and Ruby Williams, we young girls who attend the Windnon fright school, had what might have proved a serious experience but for the timely arrival of a feath. The young ladies were on their way home from Widinantic, driving toward Lebanon, Wednesday afternoon, and had just gotten beyond Postmaster C. M. Dimof speed suddenly a young man store with a good stock of good, jumped into the rear end of the wagor jumped into the rear end of the wagon and pulling a revolver pointed it at the girls and made the demand that they stop the horse and that one of them get out and accompany kim.

The girls were very much frightened but paid no accompany to the fellow's insistent demand, but whipped up the horse. At the foot of the full the fellow got out and aimed the wagner of insistent demand, but whipped up the horse. At the foot of the hill the fellow got out and aimed the revolver at the young ledies again; this was the cut for the girls to get busy and they did, sarrting the horse off at a faster clip. The fellow run after the team for quite a distance when a team was beard descending the hill in the direction of Williamantic. The young man gave up the chase and hustled off into the brush at the side of the road.

The man in the suppreaching team, the girls confinued on to their home in the girls way, was named Clifford. The girls confinued on to their home in the first took pisce outside of his libradiction and the captain tried to get hold of Deputy Sheriff C. B. Noyes of Lebanon. He was not at home and it was not until Thursday afternoon that he could be reached. The case is being investigated.

A Case of Pity Misolaced.

A good many books and plays are based on the idea of a man's taking in a line of thought or action and sticking to it long agough to carry it through. But working toward strong climax demands a rigorous consistency that may not be true to nature, for we see from a concrete example how real life siews us around.

Here is the case of a man who was drugged and robbed of his life's sayings. He pursued the effender for months over hundrens of miles, caught atm and secured his conviction and apprisonment. A well executed piece

November 26 has been fixed as the date for the hearing relative to the beer that was seized in a tenement house in the rear of the Central total on Tuesday evening by Chief George M. Pilling and his assistants. No arrests have been made in connection with the seizure.

Local officials are of the opinion that hanges will be made on the ballot low in use in this state by the incoming legislature. It is of interest to note that Killingly voters have managed to disfranchise themselves in an attempt to use the ballot in its present form in greater numbers than has been the case in other country towns. More than 150 votes have been thrown out in the two times that it has been used hare.

Wednesday Drill Night. Orders received from the headquar-ters of the Coast Artillery corps in-cluded the designation of Wednesday as drill night for the Thirteenth company, instead of Tuesday night, as for-merly. This new arrangement will be-come effective Wednesday, Nov. 30.

The order also announces that the Artillery corps has been divided into three sections, the first to include the Sth company of Danbury, 9th of Stamford and 12th of Greenwich, and the second the sixth company of Norwalk, the 14th of Bridgeport and 4th and 11th companies of Bridgeport, and the third the 13th companies of Danlelson, the 2d and 5th companies of Norwich, and the 1st and 2d companies of New London.
